

AIM for SEVA

Transforming rural India, one child at a time.

... innate spirit of service, deep insight,
and visionary approach ...

The Heart of Our Story

The All India Movement for Seva story was born from the heart-led mission and grassroots efforts of founder Swami Dayananda Saraswati to bring value-based education and quality health care to the children of impoverished rural India. A world-renowned spiritual leader and profound thinker, his selfless desire was for these children to have every opportunity to develop their full potential – and that of the nation.

Our founder's innate spirit of service, deep insight, and visionary approach continue to set the tone and serve as the driving force for all that we do.

Our Unique Holistic Approach

Since 2000, AIM for Seva's chatralaya, schools and hospitals have been making it possible for underprivileged children to develop into healthy, self-confident, responsible citizens. Our holistic model of care and service was founded on the deeply held beliefs that ...

- Well-being is achieved by caring for the whole child.
- A loving environment, quality education, and health care are essential for realizing one's potential.
- Self-respect is developed from respecting the richness of one's cultural roots.

Our Holistic Educational Model

Our Comprehensive Care

Nurture. Educate. Empower.

AIM for Seva's unique holistic care model enables underprivileged children of rural India to pursue their passions and realize their full potential.

1,700 villages reached across 16 states in rural India

5,000,000 meals served per year

8,600 students per year

20 million lives touched in rural India since 2000

100,000 patients treated per year in rural India

Chatralaya

Our unique chatralaya concept serves as a true home away from home in every sense 365 days a year – at no cost to families.

- Provides a loving, nurturing environment and a richly balanced life for children from grades 4 through 12.
- AIM for Seva cares for 3,800 children per year who live in our 98 chatralaya across 16 states of India.
- We invest more than 70,000 hours in each child during their most crucial developmental years.

Yoga, sports, and other recreational activities are an integral part of our students' lives.

Our chatralaya provide a loving home away from home, nourishing meals, and academic support.

Children are exposed to sustainable living practices such as gardening and solar energy.

Schools

Our value-based curriculum fully prepares students for employment, while imparting cultural validation, community spirit, and the concept of seva.

Health Care

Our health care facilities offer complete care, from treating common ailments to performing surgery.

80% of students pursued higher education or secured employment

Value-based education is brought right to their doorstep, preparing students intellectually and creatively for lifelong fulfillment and success.
